

The Faculty of Pharmacy is one of the prominent faculties at the Private University of Kalamoon. It was established in 2004, and the study period is 5 years.

The Faculty of Pharmacy at the Private University of Kalamoon seeks to achieve the required educational and vocational outputs to have a pharmacist prominent in all fields of pharmacy. It was impossible to achieve but for the available basics including (1) the high quality teaching staff members dedicated to their role as the custodian of bringing the pharmaceutical education forward (2) the distinguished infrastructure under the supervision of a good university administration which adopts distinction as the main aim doing its best to fulfill it.