

Studying has begun in the Faculty of Applied Sciences and its Computer Science Department since the establishment of the Private University of Kalamoon in 2003. The Faculty teaches theoretical courses in mathematics, physics, biotechnology and chemistry to the University faculties. It also opens its labs equipped with in style scientific instrumentations to all students of scientific, engineering and applied sciences and always seeks to develop the theoretical and scientific curricula to keep up with the scientific developments.