

Upon a suggestion of the Faculty of Applied Sciences, the Private University of Kalamoon, the License Degree in Computer Sciences after a 4-years academic period. A student is requested to pass one hundred and thirty accredited hours. The Department of Computer Science teaches the academic curricula accredited by the Ministry of Higher Education, and the student at this department can specify in one of the following majors: artificial intelligence – software engineering – computer information systems – computer and internet networks.